Denver2Denver and Evergreen Middle School to promote LIVESTRONG Day, May 16, 2007

Golden, CO - The Lance Armstrong Foundation (LAF) has declared May 16th as National LIVESTRONG Day. Chet Andes and the Denver2Denver team are asking the entire Denver metro area to show their support for the event by wearing yellow on Wednesday, May 16th. The staff at Evergreen Middle School, where Chet is an amazing teacher, is pledging to give him their support and we hope you will too. In addition to wearing yellow to school or work, we invite any and all participants to join students, staff and EMS parents in a mountain bike ride in Evergreen on the 16th. We will leave Evergreen Middle School at approximately 3:30, so bring your bike, helmet and gear for a fun ride to show your support for the Lance Armstrong Foundation.

About Denver2Denver

Chet Andes created his nonprofit Denver2Denver in order to not only honor his family members that were touched by cancer, but also to help all those dealing with the deadly disease. He and his Denver2Denver team will undertake a 2000-mile ride next summer from Denver, CO to Denver, PA. The Lance Armstrong Foundation, which Chet is a grassroots member, is pledging their support to help him achieve this worthwhile goal – and we ask you to do the same. To learn more, or if you are interested in joining the ride, please visit www.denver2denver.org or email Chet at chet@denver2denver.org. To find out more regarding LIVESTRONG Day please visit www.livestrong.org.

Together, we can make a difference in the fight against cancer. We thank you in advance for your help and encouragement.
